

The local radio in my area is terrible, so I invested in satellite radio as a last resort. I love my satellite radio and think that it should be able to broadcast traffic and weather. We have no traffic in this area, but I would appreciate weather especially extreme weather announcements. If the local radio did the job then I wouldn't have satellite radio. They have the right to compete like everyone else and failed.